

Paws for People® Quiz to see if your dog
is a candidate for therapy work.

1. Welcomes, not just tolerates, interactions with new people.

Yes

No

2. Is confident and stable in new situations, around medical equipment, and when meeting people / strangers of different ages, races, genders and children.

Yes

No

3. Is comfortable around crowds of people, high activity and noise.

Yes

No

4. Is able to be petted, sometimes clumsily, and hugged without jumping, cowering, barking or biting.

Yes

No

5. Would tolerate being bathed, brushed and having his/her nails clipped in preparation for visits.

Yes

No

6. Consistently follows cues for sit, down, and stay (or species appropriate obedience skills for animals other than dogs) even when there are distractions.

Yes

No

7. Moves in a controllable manner on leash through groups of people and can walk past other friendly animals.

Yes

No

8. Is able to avoid sniffing or picking up interesting items when asked to "leave it".

Yes

No